6.3 The Agency Worker is required to notify the Employment Business promptly if the Hirer will not authenticate the timesheet and provide the Employment Business with full reasons. Where the Agency Worker fails to submit a properly authenticated timesheet the Employment Business shall, in a timely fashion, conduct further investigations into the hours claimed by the Agency Worker and the reasons that the Hirer has refused to sign a timesheet in respect of those hours. This may delay any payment due to the Agency Worker. The Employment Business shall make no payment to the Agency Worker for hours not worked. Once the Employment Business has satisfied itself that the hours claimed within an unsigned timesheet are accurate it will treat the timesheet as though signed.

6.4 For the avoidance of doubt and for the purposes of the Working Time Regulations, the Agency Worker's working time shall only consist of those periods during which s/he is carrying out activities or duties for the Hirer as part of the Assignment. 7 RENUMERATION

7.1 The Employment Business shall pay to the Agency Worker the Rate of Pay and the Emoluments (if any). The Rate of Pay will be notified on a per Assignment basis and as set out in the relevant Assignment Details Form.

7.2 If the Agency Worker has completed the Qualifying Period on the start date of the relevant Assignment or following completion of the Qualifying Period during the relevant Assignment, the Employment Business shall ensure that the Rate of Pay complies with the AWR. Any increase upon completion of the Qualifying Period (if any) will be notified on a per Assignment basis as set out in the relevant Assignment Details Form or any variation to the relevant Assignment Details Form.

7.3 Subject to any statutory entitlement under the relevant legislation referred to in clauses 8 and 9 below and any other statutory entitlement, the Agency Worker is not entitled to receive payment from the Employment Business or the Hirer for time not spent on Assignment, whether in respect of holidays, illness or absence for any other reason unless otherwise agreed.

7.4 If the Agency Worker has completed the Qualifying Period on the start date of the relevant Assignment or following completion of the Qualifying Period during the relevant Assignment, the Agency Worker may be entitled to receive a bonus. The Agency Worker will comply with any requirements of the Employment Business and/or the Hirer relating to the assessment of the Agency Worker's performance for the purpose of determining whether or not the Agency Worker is entitled to a bonus and the amount of any such bonus. If, subject to satisfying the relevant assessment criteria, the Agency Worker is entitled to receive a bonus, the Employment Business will pay the bonus to the Agency Worker.

8 ANNUAL LEAVE

8.1 The Agency Worker is entitled to paid annual leave according to the statutory minimum as provided by the Working Time Regulations from time to time. The current statutory entitlement to paid annual leave under the Working Time Regulations is 5.6 weeks inclusive of the 8 statutory holidays calculated on a pro rata basis depending on the number of hours that the Agency Worker actually works.

8.2 The Agency Worker's actual holiday entitlement is therefore equivalent to 12.07% of the hours that they work to a maximum of 28 days in a Leave Year. In agreeing to these Terms, the Agency Worker agrees to be paid their accrued holiday at the rate of 12.07% of hours worked as part of the Rate of Pay, and paid in accordance with clause 7. Sums paid in respect of annual leave are included within the Rate of Pay and will be clearly marked on the Agency Worker's payslip. The Agency Worker may request that their holiday entitlement is accrued and paid separately – in this case, only the standard rate of pay (89.23% of the Rate of Pay) will be paid, and the 12.07% holiday pay will be paid separately in accordance with sections 8.5 to 8.7.

8.3 Under the AWR, on completion of the Qualifying Period the Agency Worker may be entitled to paid and/or unpaid annual leave in addition to the Agency Worker's entitlement to paid annual leave under the Working Time Regulations and in accordance with clause 8.1. If this is the case, any such entitlement(s), the date from which any such entitlement(s) will commence and how payment for such entitlement(s) accrues will be as set out in the relevant Assignment Details Form or any variation to the relevant Assignment Details Form.

8.4 All entitlement to leave must be taken during the course of the Leave Year in which it accrues and outside of the published dates of the school terms of the Hirer, and save as may be set out in the relevant Assignment Details Form or any variation to the relevant Assignment Details Form, none may be carried forward to the next year. The Agency Worker is responsible for ensuring that all paid annual leave is requested and taken within the Leave Year.

8.5 If the Agency Worker wishes to take paid leave s/he should notify the Employment Business of the dates of his/her intended absence giving notice of at least twice the length of the period of leave that s/he wishes to take. In certain circumstances the Employment Business may require the Agency Worker to take paid annual leave at specific times or notify the Agency Worker of periods when paid annual leave cannot be taken over and above the requirements detailed at clause 8.4. Where the Agency Worker has given notice of a request to take paid annual leave in accordance with this clause, the Employment Business may give counter-notice to the Agency Worker to postpone or reduce the amount of leave that the Agency Worker wishes to take. In such circumstances the Employment Business will inform the Agency Worker in writing giving at least the same length of notice as the period of leave that it wishes to postpone or reduce it by. The Agency Worker acknowledges that his/her ability to take annual leave is subject to the requirements of the Hirer. The Employment Business reserves the right to reject a request for leave where it is not reasonably practicable due to the business requirements of the Hirer.

8.6 Save where this clause is amended by the Assignment Details Form, where a bank holiday or other public holiday falls during an Assignment and the Agency Worker does not work on that day, then subject to the Agency Worker in accordance with clause 8.3 (if applicable), that day shall count as part of the Agency Worker's paid annual leave entitlement if taken by the Agency Worker as annual leave. Unless otherwise stated in the Assignment Details Form public holidays are classed as working days during the Assignment.

8.7 Where this contract is terminated by either party, the Agency Worker shall be entitled to a payment in lieu of any untaken leave where the amount of leave paid to the Agency Worker is less than the amount accrued in accordance with clause 8 at the date of termination. Where the amount paid is more than the amount accrued in accordance with clause 8 at the date of termination, the Agency Worker is obliged to repay to the Employment Business the sums paid to the Agency Worker for such days taken in excess of the Agency Worker's accrued entitlement. The Employment Business may deduct such sums from the final monies due to the Agency Worker upon termination.

9 SICKNESS ABSENCE

9.1 The Agency Worker may be eligible for Statutory Sick Pay provided that s/he meets the relevant statutory criteria in respect of any period of sickness or injury during an Assignment, but the Agency Worker will not be entitled to any other payments from the Employment Business during such period.

9.2 If the Agency Worker has accepted an Assignment but is subsequently unable to work the times agreed the Agency Worker is required to notify the Employment Business as soon as possible but no later than 2 hours before the Assignment provide the Employment Business with evidence of incapacity to work which may be by way of a self-certificate for the first 7 days of incapacity and a doctor's certificate thereafter.

9.3 For the purposes of the Statutory Sick Pay scheme there is one qualifying day per week during the course of an Assignment and that qualifying day shall be the Wednesday in every week.

9.4 In the event that the Agency Worker submits a Statement of Fitness for Work ("the Statement") or similar medical evidence, which indicates that the Agency Worker may, subject to certain conditions, be fit to work/return to work, the Employment Business will in its absolute discretion determine whether the Agency Worker will be (a) placed in a new Assignment or (b) permitted to continue in an ongoing Assignment. In making such determination the Employment Business may consult with the Hirer and the Agency Worker as appropriate to assess whether the conditions identified in the Statement or similar documentation can be satisfied for the duration of the Assignment.

9.5 Where clause 9.4 applies, the Agency Worker's placement in a new Assignment or continuation in an ongoing Assignment may be subject to the Agency Worker agreeing to a variation of the Terms or the assignment details set out in the Assignment Details Form to accommodate any conditions identified in the Statement or other similar medical evidence as is appropriate.

10 TERMINATION

10.1 Any of the Employment Business, the Agency Worker or the Hirer may terminate an Assignment at any time without prior notice and without liability. The Employment Business or the Hirer is under no obligation to give the Agency Worker reasons for the termination.

10.2 The Terms can be terminated without prior notice and without liability if the Agency

Worker is made bankrupt or if either the Employment Business or the Hirer makes a resolution for its winding up, makes an arrangement or composition with its creditors or makes an application to a court of competent jurisdiction for protection from its creditors or an administration or winding-up order is made or an administrator or receiver is appointed in relation to that party

10.3 The Agency Worker acknowledges that the continuation of an Assignment is subject to and conditioned by the continuation of the contract entered into between the Employment Business and the Hirer. In the event that the contract between the Employment Business and the Hirer is not completed or is terminated for any reason or in the event that the Employment Business concludes that the Hirer is not meeting its obligations to the Agency Worker and / or the Employment Business the Assignment shall cease with immediate effect without liability to the Agency Worker (save for payment for hours worked by the Agency Worker up to the date of termination of the Assignment).

10.4 If the Agency Worker considers the Employment Business is in material breach of these Terms the Agency Worker will notify the Employment Business immediately in writing and will give the Employment Business 14 Business Days to remedy the breach. If the breach is not remedied the Agency Worker may terminate the Assignment with immediate effect.

10.5 If the Agency Worker does not inform the Hirer or the Employment Business that they are unable to attend work during the course of an Assignment (as required in clause 5.7) this will be treated as termination of the Assignment by the Agency Worker in accordance with clause 10.1, unless the Agency Worker can show that exceptional circumstances prevented him or her from complying with clause 5.7.

10.6 If the Agency Worker is absent during the course of an Assignment and the Assignment has not been otherwise terminated under clauses 10.1 to 10.3 above the Employment Business will be entitled to terminate the Assignment in accordance with clause 10.1 if the work to which the Agency Worker was assigned is no longer available.

10.7 If the Assignment is terminated as a result of the negligence of the Agency Worker, the Agency Worker acknowledges that notwithstanding the termination of the Assignment they may remain liable for any loss or damage caused to the Hirer or any third party as applicable as a result of their act or omission.

10.8 An Assignment can be suspended at any time by the Employment Business giving the Agency Worker notice of the suspension.

11 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Agency Worker acknowledges that all copyright, trademarks, patents and other intellectual property rights deriving from services carried out by him/her for the Hirer during the Assignment shall belong to the Hirer. Accordingly the Agency Worker shall execute all such documents and do all such acts as the Employment Business shall from time to time require in order to give effect to its rights pursuant to this clause.

12 CONFIDENTIALITY

12.1 In order to protect the confidentiality and trade secrets of any Hirer and the Employment Business and without prejudice to every other duty to keep secret all information given to it or gained in confidence the Agency Worker agrees as follows:

12.1.1 not at any time, whether during or after an Assignment (unless expressly so authorised by the Hirer or the Employment Business as a necessary part of the performance of its duties) to disclose to any person or to make use of any of the trade secrets or the Confidential Information of the Hirer or the Employment Business with the exception of information already in the public domain;

12.1.2 to deliver up to the Hirer or the Employment Business (as directed) at the end of each Assignment all documents and other materials belonging to the Hirer (and all copies) which are in its possession including documents and other materials created by him/her during the course of the Assignment; and

12.1.3 not at any time to make any copy, abstract, summary or précis of the whole or any part of any document or other material belonging to the Hirer except when required to do so in the course of its duties under an Assignment in which event any such item shall belong to the Hirer or the Employment Business as appropriate.

12.2 The Agency Worker will not discuss the terms of this Agreement with the Hirer save as expressly required for the purposes of undertaking the Assignment.

13 DATA PROTECTION

The Agency Worker acknowledges that the Employment Business must process personal data about him/her in order to properly fulfil its obligations under these Terms and as otherwise required by law in relation to his/her engagement in accordance with the Data Protection Laws. Such processing will principally be for personnel, administrative and payroll purposes.

14 LIABILITY

14.1 The Employment Business shall not be liable for any loss claimed by the Agency Worker other than in respect of the Employment Business', its agents' or employees' breach of contract negligence or as provided by statute or where such liability is expressly provided by law. The Employment Business does not exclude any liability in respect of death or personal injury caused by its, agents' or employees' negligence, liability for fraud or any other liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law.

14.2 In the event that the Agency Worker brings any claim against the Employment Business in breach of clause 14.1, the Agency Worker shall fully indemnify the Employment Business in relation to any loss suffered as a result of such claim including legal costs reasonably incurred by the Employment Business defending such claim.

14.3 The parties agree that the Employment Business is not liable for any loss or damages:

14.3.1 arising out of any representation made by the Hirer to the Agency Worker;

14.3.2 arising out of any act or omission, tort (including negligence), breach of statute or breach of contract by the Hirer;

14.4.3 if no work is found for the Agency Worker or the work found is not suitable;

14.4.4 for any failure by the Employment Business to provide any information or service save to the extent strictly required by this Agreement or by law.

14.3 Without prejudice to the other provisions within this Agreement the Employment Business' liability, save for monies due for work done, shall be limited to direct loss only and shall not exceed £50,000 save where a limit is precluded by law.

15 STATUS

15.1 This agreement does not constitute a contract of employment between the Agency Worker and the Employment Business or the Agency Worker and the Hirer. Accordingly the Agency Worker shall be fully responsible for and shall indemnify the Employment Business for and in respect of any liability arising from any employment-related claim (save for any claim based on worker and / or Agency Worker status) (including reasonable costs and expenses) brought by the Agency Worker arising out of or in connection with the provision of the services under this Agreement.

15.2 The Employment Business may at its option satisfy such indemnity (in whole or in part) by way of deduction from any payments due to the Agency Worker.

16 SEVERABILITY

If any of the provisions of these Terms shall be determined by any competent authority to be unenforceable to any extent, such provision shall, to that extent, be severed from the remaining Terms, which shall continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws.

17 NOTICES

All notices which are required to be given in accordance with these Terms shall be in writing and may be delivered personally or by first class prepaid post to the registered office of the party upon whom the notice is to be served or any other address that the party has notified the other party in writing or by email. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been served: if by hand when delivered; if by first class post 48 hours following posting; and if by email, when that email is sent.

18 ASSIGNMENT

The Employment Business may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement but the Agency Worker may not do so without the Employment Business' prior written consent

19 RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES

None of the provisions of these Terms are intended to be for the benefit of or enforceable by third parties and the operation of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 is excluded.

20 GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

These Terms are governed by the law of England & Wales and are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England & Wales.

SCHEDULE: "QUALIFYING PERIOD" AND "TEMPORARY WORK AGENCY"

For the purpose of the definition of "Qualifying Period" in clause 1.1 of these Terms, when calculating whether any weeks completed with the Hirer count as continuous towards the Qualifying Period, where:

- (a) the Agency Worker has started working during an assignment and there is a break, either between assignments or during an assignment, when the Agency Worker is not working;
- (b) the break is:
 - (i) for any reason and not more than six Calendar Weeks;
 - (ii) wholly due to the fact that the Agency Worker is incapable of working in consequence of sickness or injury and the break is 28 Calendar Weeks or less; paragraph (iii) does not apply; and, if required to do so by the Employment Business, the Agency Worker has provided such written medical evidence as may reasonably be required;
 - (iii) related to pregnancy, childbirth or maternity and is at a time in a protected period, being a period beginning at the start of the pregnancy and ending at the end of the 26 weeks beginning with childbirth (being the birth of a living child or the birth of a child whether living or dead after 24 weeks of pregnancy) or, if earlier, when the Agency Worker returns to work;
 - (iv) wholly for the purpose of taking time off or leave, whether statutory or contractual, to which the Agency Worker is otherwise entitled which is:
 - i. ordinary, compulsory or additional maternity leave;
 - ii. ordinary or additional adoption leave;
 - iii. ordinary or additional paternity leave;
 - iv. time off or other leave not listed in paragraphs (iv)i, ii, or iii above; or
 - v. for more than one of the reasons listed in paragraphs (iv)i, ii, iii to iv above;
 - (v) wholly due to the fact that the Agency Worker is required to attend at any place in pursuance to being summoned for service as a juror and the break is 28 Calendar Weeks or less;
 - (vi) wholly due to a temporary cessation in the Hirer's requirement for any worker to be present at the establishment and work in a particular role for a pre-determined period of time according to the established custom and practices of the Hirer;
 - (vii) wholly due to a strike, lock-out or other industrial action at the Hirer's establishment; or
 - (viii) wholly due to more than one of the reasons listed in paragraphs (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi) or (vii); and
- (c) the Agency Worker returns to work in the same role with the Hirer, any weeks during which the Agency Worker worked for the Hirer before the break shall be carried forward and treated as counting towards the Qualifying Period with any weeks during which the Agency Worker works for the Hirer after the break. In addition, when calculating the number of weeks during which the Agency Worker has worked, where the Agency Worker has started working in a role during an Assignment and is unable to continue working for a reason described in paragraph (b)(iii) or (b)(iv)i., ii, or iii., for the period that is covered by one or more such reasons, the Agency Worker shall be deemed to be working in that role with the Hirer for the original intended duration or likely duration of the relevant Assignment, whichever is the longer. For the avoidance of doubt, time spent by the Agency Worker working during an assignment before 1 October 2011 does not count for the purposes of the definition of "Qualifying Period".

"Temporary Work Agency" means as defined in Regulation 4 of the AWR being a person engaged in the economic activity, public or private, whether or not operating for profit, and whether or not carrying on such activity in conjunction with others, of:

- (a) supplying individuals to work temporarily for and under the supervision and direction of hirers; or
- (b) paying for, or receiving or forwarding payment for, the services of individuals who are supplied to work temporarily for and under the supervision and direction of hirers.

Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this definition a person is not a Temporary Work Agency if the person is engaged in the economic activity of paying for, or receiving or forwarding payments for, the services of individuals regardless of whether the individuals are supplied to work for hirers. For the purpose of this definition, a "hirer" means a person engaged in economic activity, public or private, whether or not operating for profit, to whom individuals are supplied, to work temporarily for and under the supervision and direction of that person.
