2. THE CONTRACT

2.1. This Agreement together with the attached Schedule and any applicable Assignment Details Form (“Agreement”) constitutes the entire agreement between the Employment Business and the Intermediary and governs for the supply of the Intermediary Services to the Hirer and shall govern all Assignments undertaken by the Intermediary. However no contract shall exist between the Employment Business and the Intermediary between Assignments. This Agreement shall prevail over any terms put forward by the Intermediary and shall be deemed to be accepted upon acceptance by the Intermediary of an Assignment.

2.2. During an Assignment the Intermediary will be engaged on a contract for services by the Employment Business on the terms set out in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt this Agreement shall not be construed as a contract of employment between any Temporary Contractor or any representative of the Intermediary supplied to carry out the Assignment and either the Employment Business or the Hirer, and any of the liabilities of an employer arising out of the Assignment shall be the liabilities of the Intermediary

2.3. No variation or alteration to this Agreement shall be valid unless the details of such variation are agreed between the Employment Business and the Intermediary and set out in writing and a copy of the varied terms is given to the Intermediary no later than 5 Business Days following the day on which the variation was made stating the date on or after which such varied terms shall apply.

2.4. The Employment Business shall act as an employment business (as defined in Section 13(3) of the Employment Agencies Act 1973) when introducing or supplying the Intermediary for Assignments with its Hirers.

3. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE EMPLOYMENT BUSINESS AND THE INTERMEDIARY AND BETWEEN THE HIRER AND THE INTERMEDIARY

3.1. The Employment Business will endeavour to obtain suitable Assignments for the Intermediary performing the agreed Type of Work although the Employment Business offers no guarantee that it will be able to offer the Intermediary any Assignments to perform the agreed Type of Work and offers no guarantee that an opportunity the Employment Business informs the Intermediary and / or Temporary Contractor of will be progressed. The Intermediary shall not be obliged to accept an Assignment offered by the Employment Business.

3.2. The Intermediary acknowledges that the nature of temporary work means that there may be periods when no suitable work is available and agrees that:

3.2.1. suitability of the work to be offered shall be determined solely by the Employment Business;

3.2.2. the Employment Business shall incur no liability to the Intermediary (or an Temporary Contractor);should it fail to offer opportunities to work to the Intermediary

3.2.3. the Employment Business may remove the Intermediary from its database at any time and shall incur no liability for failing to offer Assignments of the Type of Work or any other work as a result;

3.2.4. a Hirer and / or the Employment Business may withdraw an offer of an Assignment at any time before an Assignment

3.3. The Intermediary acknowledges to the Employment Business that its services are supplied to the Employment Business as an independent contractor and that accordingly the responsibility and expense of complying with all statutory and legal requirements relating to the Temporary Contractor (including the matters of taxation and compliance with the immigration laws and Disclosure and Barring Services (“DBS”) checks applicable to the jurisdiction in which the Intermediary Services are provided) shall fall upon and be discharged wholly and exclusively by the Intermediary.

3.4. Once the Intermediary has confirmed it wishes to take the Assignment offered the Employment Business will confirm the Intermediary’s intention for the Temporary Contractor to undertake the Assignment with the Hirer.

3.5. The Employment Business will monitor the Hirer’s requirements for the Intermediary’s services and the Temporary Contractor’s progress during the Assignment. If either the Hirer or the Intermediary requires changes to the way the Assignment is performed, the Employment Business may suggest options for making those changes, including discussing termination in accordance with clause 9.

3.6. If before or during an Assignment or during the Relevant Period the Hirer wishes to Engage the Intermediary or any Temporary Contractor directly or through another employment business, the Intermediary acknowledges that the Employment Business will be entitled either to charge the Hirer a Transfer Fee or to agree to a Period of Extended Hire with the Hirer at the end of which the Intermediary or the Temporary Contractor (as appropriate) may be Engaged directly by the Hirer or through another employment business without further charge to the Hirer. In addition the Employment Business will be entitled to charge a Transfer Fee to the Hirer if the Hirer introduces the Intermediary or any Temporary Contractor to a third party (other than another employment business) who subsequently Engages the Intermediary or any Temporary Contractor before or during an Assignment or within the Relevant Period.

3.7. If the Temporary Contractor has completed the Qualifying Period on the start date of the relevant Assignment or following completion of the Qualifying Period during the relevant Assignment, and if the Temporary Contractor is entitled to any terms and conditions relating to the duration of working time, night work, rest periods and/or rest breaks and/or annual leave under the AWR which are different and preferential to rights and entitlements relating to the same under the Working Time Regulations, any such terms and conditions will be as set out in the relevant Assignment Details Form or any variation to the relevant Assignment Details Form (as appropriate) and the Intermediary will give the Temporary Contractor any such entitlements.

3.8. If the Intermediary and/or the Temporary Contractor considers that the Temporary Contractor has not or may not have received equal treatment under the AWR as a result of any act or omission of the Employment Business, the Intermediary may, or may request the Temporary Contractor to, raise this in writing with the Employment Business setting out as fully as possible the basis of the Intermediary’s and/or the Temporary Contractor’s concerns. The Intermediary and/or the Temporary Contractor are encouraged to initially raise such concerns informally with the Employment Business.

3.9. As a Temporary Work Agency, the Intermediary will notify the Employment Business as soon as possible prior to the commencement of the first Assignment under this Agreement if the Temporary Contractor has an AWR Regulation 10 Contract of Employment and shall provide a copy of that contract (on request from the Employment Business). The Intermediary will also notify the Employment Business immediately if:

3.9.1 any such contract is terminated;

3.9.2 the Regulation 10 Compliant Contract with the Temporary Contractor found to no longer comply with Regulation 10 of the AWR; and

3.9.3 the Intermediary is put on notice that the Regulation 10 Compliant Contract with the Temporary Contractor may not comply with Regulation 10 of the AWR.

3.10. As a Temporary Work Agency, the Intermediary will comply with the AWR in all relevant respects.

3.11 Save to the extent any Losses result from any act or omission of the Employment Business or the Hirer, the Intermediary shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Employment Business (or, as the case may be, the Hirer) against any Losses the Employment Business (or the Hirer) may suffer or incur as a result of any claim made by or on behalf of the Temporary Contractor under the AWR.

4. WARRANTIES PROVIDED BY THE INTERMEDIARY

4.1. The Intermediary warrants to the Employment Business that:

4.1.1. by entering into and performing its obligations under this Agreement it will not thereby be in breach of any obligation which it owes to any third party;

4.1.2. it has carried out all necessary employment checks on the Temporary Contractor as required by law and relevant to providing the Type of Work including but not limited to the Temporary Contractor's right to work within the UK without restriction and DBS checks. 6.2.4. the Minimum Rate and any expenses payable by or to the Intermediary;

6.2.5. any risks to health and safety known to the Hirer in relation to the Assignment and the steps the Hirer has taken to prevent or control such risks; and

6.2.6. what experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation required by law or a professional body the Hirer considers necessary or which are required by law to work in the Assignment.

6.3. Where such information is not given in paper form or by electronic means it shall be confirmed by such means by the end of the third Business Day following save where:

6.3.1. the Intermediary is being offered an Assignment in the same position as one in which the Intermediary had previously been supplied within the previous 5 Business Days and such information has already been given to the Intermediary; or

6.3.2. subject to clause 6.4, the Assignment is intended to last for 5 consecutive Business Days or less and such information has previously been given to the Intermediary and remains unchanged, the Employment Business needs only to provide written confirmation of the identity of the Hirer and the likely duration of the Assignment.

6.4. Where the provisions of clause 6.3.2 are met but the Assignment extends beyond the intended 5 consecutive Business Day period, the Employment Business shall provide such information set out in clause 6.2 to the Intermediary in paper or electronic form within 8 days of the start of the Assignment.

6.5. The Employment Business will endeavour to obtain accurate information from the Hirer but accepts no liability for any inaccuracies in the information provided to it by the Hirer or any representation made by the Hirer to the Temporary Contractor and / or the Intermediary.

7. TIMESHEETS AND INVOICING

7.1. At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where an Assignment is for a period of less than 1 week or is completed before the end of a week) the Intermediary shall deliver to the Employment Business the Employment Business' timesheet duly completed to indicate the number of hours worked by the Intermediary during the preceding week signed by an authorised representative of the Hirer. The timesheet must be accompanied by an invoice from the Intermediary for the amount due from the Employment Business to the Intermediary for the hours worked in that week. Such invoice should bear the Intermediary's name, the name of the Temporary Contractor who provided the Intermediary Services, the Intermediary's company registration number and VAT number, and should state any VAT due on the invoiced sum. The Intermediary shall also provide on a monthly basis a copy of the Temporary Contractor payslip (providing a minimum of 2 payslips per month) for the services provided through the Intermediary. Failure to provide such payslips will result in termination of this Agreement.

7.2. Subject to the Intermediary complying with the provisions of this clause 7 the Employment Business shall pay the Intermediary for all hours worked regardless of whether the Employment Business has received payment from the Hirer for those hours.

7.3. In order to ensure prompt payment, the Employment Business should receive the signed timesheet no later than 4.00pm on Monday following the week to which it relates. Where the Intermediary fails to submit a properly authenticated timesheet the Employment Business shall, in a timely fashion, conduct further investigations into the hours claimed by the Temporary Contractor and the reasons, if any, that the Hirer has refused to sign a timesheet in respect of those hours. This may delay any payment due to the Intermediary.

8. INTERMEDIARY FEES

8.1. Subject to the receipt of the Intermediary's invoice and signed timesheet in accordance with clause 7 above, and the Intermediary's compliance with this Agreement, the Employment Business will pay the Intermediary Fees within 7 days of receipt of the Intermediary's invoice. The Employment Business shall pay to the Intermediary the Intermediary Fees which shall be notified on a per Assignment basis.

8.2. The Employment Business has relied upon the Intermediary's confirmation that there is a Regulation 10 Compliant Contract in place with the Temporary Contractor. Without prejudice to clause 10, if the Temporary Contractor seeks a variation to their pay (including bonus) or paid annual leave following the Qualifying Period and it is found that:

8.2.1. there is no Regulation 10 Compliant Contract in place; or 8.2.2. one of the circumstances in clauses 3.9.1, 3.9.2 or 3.9.3 has occurred and the Intermediary has failed to notify the Employment Business the same. The Intermediary will indemnify and keep indemnified the Employment Business in respect of such claims for pay, bonus, or paid annual leave by the Temporary Contractor. The Employment Business reserves the right to vary the Intermediary Fees from the commencement of the Qualifying Period if it is found that the circumstances in clauses 3.9.1, 3.9.2, 3.9.3 (whether or not the Employment Business was notified by the Intermediary of the same) or 8.2.1 have occurred and the Intermediary will, at the same time, make the same variations to the corresponding payments the Intermediary makes to the Temporary Contractor. The Employment Business reserves the right to recover as a debt and the Intermediary agrees to indemnify the Employment Business in respect of any overpayment is made to the Intermediary as a result of the circumstances in clauses 3.9.1, 3.9.2, 3.9.3 (whether or not the Employment Business was notified by the Intermediary of the same) or 8.2.1 occurring.

8.2.3. Recouping overpayments made to the Intermediary by the Employment Business.

Such deduction shall not be a withholding of payment due but shall be a lawful deduction on account of monies due from the Intermediary to the Employment Business.

8.3. Subject to clause 8.10, if and when the Temporary Contractor:

8.3.1. completes the Qualifying Period, the Employment Business reserves the right to vary the Intermediary Fees if there is any variation the Relevant Terms and Conditions; or any such variation will be as set out in a variation to the relevant Assignment Details Form and the Intermediary shall ensure that, if at any time the Employment Business varies the Intermediary Fees in accordance with this clause 8.3, the Intermediary will, at the same time, make the same variations to the corresponding payments the Intermediary makes to the Temporary Contractor.

8.4. The Intermediary shall be responsible for the deduction of any PAYE Income Tax and National Insurance Contributions and any other taxes and deductions payable in respect of any earnings paid to the Temporary Contractor for any Assignment any Assignment including any social fund contributions payable in any other Member State pursuant to a valid A1, Temporary Contractor E101 or E102 Certificate issued to any Temporary Contractor.

8.5. All payments due from the Employment Business will be made to the Intermediary and not to any third party or the Temporary Contractor. The Intermediary shall be responsible for making all payments to the Temporary Contractor including pay both during the Assignment and at the rates required under Regulation 10 of the AWR for any Calendar Week in which the Temporary Contractor does not undertake the Assignment.

8.6. The Employment Business shall not be obliged to pay the Intermediary for any periods during which the Intermediary Services are not provided, whether this is due to the Intermediary being unable to provide the Intermediary Services or where the Hirer does not require the Intermediary Services or otherwise in respect of annual leave, illness or absence of the Temporary Contractor.

8.7. The Intermediary shall bear the cost of any training which the Temporary Contractor may require in order to perform the Intermediary Services.

8.8. Clauses 8.3 and 8.5 will not apply where the Temporary Contractor is employed on an AWR Regulation 10 Contract of Employment.

8.9. The Employment Business will pay the Intermediary Fees into a UK business bank account only.

9. TERM AND TERMINATION

9.1. Either of the Employment Business or the Intermediary may terminate the Assignment in writing at any time without prior notice or liability. The Employment Business is under no obligation to give the Temporary Contractor reasons for the termination.

9.2. Notwithstanding clauses 9.1 and 9.3 of this Agreement, where required by the Hirer, or otherwise, the Employment Business may without notice and without liability instruct the Intermediary to cease work on an Assignment at any time, where:

9.2.1. the Intermediary or the Hirer are, in the opinion of the Employment Business, unable or unwilling to perform their obligations to the Employment Business;

9.2.2. the Intermediary has acted in breach of the rules and regulations applicable to third parties providing services to the Hirer or to the Hirer's own staff; or

9.2.3. the Intermediary has committed any serious or persistent breach of any of its obligations under this Agreement; or

9.2.4. the Hirer reasonably believes that the Intermediary has not observed any condition of confidentiality from time to time; or

9.2.5. the Hirer is dissatisfied with the Intermediary's or the Temporary Contractors provision of the Intermediary Services and has terminated the Assignment; or

9.2.6. either the Hirer or the Intermediary is dissolved, ceases to conduct all (or substantially all) of its business, is or becomes unable to pay its debts as they fall due, is or becomes insolvent or is declared insolvent, or convenes a meeting or makes or proposes to make any arrangement or composition with its creditors; or

9.2.7. an administrator, administrative receiver, liquidator, receiver, trustee, manager or similar is appointed over any of the assets of the Hirer or the Intermediary; or

9.2.8. an order is made for the winding up of the Hirer or the Intermediary, or where the Hirer or the Intermediary passes a resolution for its winding up (other than for the purpose of a solvent company reorganisation or amalgamation where the resulting entity will assume all the obligations of the other party under this Agreement); or

9.2.9. the Intermediary or the Temporary Contractor is suspected of any fraud, dishonesty or serious misconduct; or

9.2.10. the Intermediary or the Temporary Contractor is unable to perform the Intermediary Services for 3 days or more;

9.2.11. the Employment Business suspects or believes that the Intermediary has not complied with any of the requirements of ITEPA or the NICs Legislation;

9.2.12. the Intermediary fails to comply with clause 13.3;

9.2.13. the Intermediary fails to provide the relevant payslips as outlined in clause 7.1;

9.2.14. the Employment Business knows or suspects that either the Intermediary or the Temporary Contractor have breached the Data Protection Laws; or

9.2.15. the Employment Business is put on notice that there is not a Regulation 10 Compliant Contract in place with the Temporary Contractor

9.3. The Intermediary acknowledges that the continuation of an Assignment is subject to and conditioned by the continuation of the contract entered into between the Employment Business and the Hirer. In the event that the contract between the Employment Business and the Hirer is not completed or is terminated for any reason or in the event that the Employment Business concludes that the Hirer is not meeting its obligations to the Intermediary and / or the Employment Business the Assignment shall cease with immediate effect without liability to the Intermediary.

9.4. Failure by the Intermediary to give notice of termination as required in the Assignment Details Form shall constitute a breach of contract and shall entitle the Employment Business to claim damages from the Intermediary for any resulting Losses suffered by the Employment Business.

9.5. If the Intermediary considers the Employment Business is in material breach of this Agreement the Intermediary will notify the Employment Business immediately in writing and will give the Employment Business 14 Business Days to remedy the breach. If the breach is not remedied the Intermediary may terminate the Assignment with immediate effect.

9.6. If the Assignment is terminated as a result of the negligence of the Intermediary or Temporary Contractor, the Intermediary acknowledges that notwithstanding the termination of the Assignment they may remain liable for any loss or damage caused to the Hirer or any third party as applicable as a result of their act or omission.

9.7. An Assignment can be suspended at any time by the Employment Business giving the Intermediary notice of the suspension.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Intermediary acknowledges that all copyright, trademarks, patents and other intellectual property rights deriving from the Intermediary Services carried out by the Intermediary and the Temporary Contractor for the Hirer during the Assignment shall belong to the Hirer. Accordingly the Intermediary shall (and shall procure that the Temporary Contractor shall) execute all such documents and do all such acts as the Employment Business shall from time to time require in order to give effect to its rights pursuant to this clause.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

11.1. In order to protect the confidentiality and trade secrets of any Hirer and the Employment Business and without prejudice to every other duty to keep secret all information given to it or gained in confidence the Intermediary agrees on its own part and on behalf of the Temporary Contractor as follows:

11.1.1. not at any time whether during or after an Assignment (unless expressly so authorised by the Hirer or the Employment Business as a necessary part of the performance of its duties) to disclose to any person or to make use of any of the trade secrets or the Confidential Information of the Hirer or the Employment Business with the exception of information already in the public domain;

11.1.2. to deliver up to the Hirer or the Employment Business (as directed) at the end of each Assignment all documents and other materials belonging to the Hirer (and all copies) which are in its possession including documents and other materials created by it or the Temporary Contractor during the course of the Assignment; and

11.1.3. not at any time to make any copy, abstract, summary or précis of the whole or any part of any document or other material belonging to the Hirer except when required to do so in the course of its duties under an Assignment in which event any such item shall belong to the Hirer or the Employment Business as appropriate.

12. COMPUTER EQUIPMENT WARRANTY

The Intermediary shall ensure that any computer equipment and associated software that it provides to the Temporary Contractor for the purpose of providing the Intermediary Services contains anti-virus protection with the latest released upgrade from time to time.

13. CONTRACT MONITORING AND AUDITS

13.1. The Employment Business reserves the right to audit the Intermediary on an ad hoc basis to ensure compliance with this Agreement and all statutory requirements in relation to all Temporary Contractors supplied to provide the Intermediary Services including in particular but not limited to ITEPA and the NICs Legislation.

13.2. To assist the Employment Business in its audit the Intermediary will:

13.2.1. maintain such records as are necessary to comply with this Agreement and all statutory requirements in relation to all Temporary Contractors supplied to provide the Intermediary Services, and will provide copies of the same to the Employment Business on request;

13.2.2. provide the Employment Business with access to its premises and original records relating to all Temporary Contractors supplied to provide the Intermediary Services.

13.3. If having conducted an audit, the Employment Business requires the Intermediary to take any action the Intermediary shall take such action within the time period specified by the Employment Business. If the Intermediary fails to take such action or to rectify the matter to the Employment Business's satisfaction, the Employment Business may terminate this Agreement in accordance with clause 9.

14. LIABILITY

14.1. The Intermediary shall:

14.1.1. be liable for any Losses or injury to any party resulting from the deliberate and/or negligent acts or omissions of the Intermediary or Temporary Contractor during an Assignment; and 14.1.2. obtain adequate employer's liability insurance, public liability insurance, professional indemnity insurance and any other suitable policies of insurance in respect of the Intermediary and the Temporary Contractor. The Intermediary shall maintain such insurance for the duration of the Assignment and following termination of the Assignment for the period specified. The Intermediary shall make a copy of the policy available to the Employment Business upon request.

14.2. Save to the extent any Losses result from any act or omission of the Employment Business or the Hirer, the Intermediary shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Employment Business (or, as the case may be, the Hirer) against any Losses the Employment Business (or the Hirer) may suffer or incur as a result of any claim made by or on behalf of the Temporary Contractor under the AWR.

14.3. The Employment Business shall not be liable for any Loss claimed by the Intermediary and/or the Temporary Contractor other than in respect of the Employment Business', its agents' or employees' breach of contract, negligence or as provided by statute or where such liability is expressly provided by law. The Employment Business does not exclude any liability in respect of death or personal injury caused by its own, its agents' or employees' negligence, liability for fraud or any other liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law. The parties acknowledge that the Intermediary has taken on all responsibility for ensuring that a Regulation 10 Compliant Contract is in place and the 14.4. Employment Business shall not be liable for any Loss resulting from a failure to ensure that a Regulation 10 Compliant Contract is in place.

14.5. Nothing in this Agreement shall render any Temporary Contractor an employee or worker of either the Employment Business or the Hirer. The Intermediary shall ensure that the Temporary Contractor does not hold him/herself out as an employee or worker of either the Employment Business or the Hirer. In the event that any person should seek to establish any liability or obligation upon the Employment Business on the grounds that the Temporary Contractor is an employee/employees or worker/workers of the Employment Business or the Hirer, the Intermediary shall upon demand indemnify the Employment Business and keep it indemnified in respect of any such liability or obligation and any related Losses which the Employment Business or Hirer shall incur.

14.6. The parties agree that the Employment Business is not liable for any loss or damages:

14.6.1. arising out of any representation made by the Hirer to the Intermediary and / or the Temporary Contractor;

14.6.2. arising out of any act or omission, tort (including negligence), breach of statute or breach of contract by the Hirer;

14.6.3. if no work is found for the Intermediary or the work found is not suitable;

14.6.4. for any failure by the Employment Business to provide any information or service save to the extent strictly required by law or this Agreement;

14.6.5. for any failure of the Intermediary in its obligations to the Temporary Contractor as its employer;

14.7. Without prejudice to the other provisions within this Agreement the Employment Business' liability, save for monies due for work done, shall be limited to direct loss only and shall not exceed £10,000 save where a limit is precluded by law.

15. INDEMNITY

The Intermediary shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Employment Business against any Losses suffered or incurred by the Employment Business by reason of any proceedings, claims or demands by the Temporary Contractor, the Hirer or any third party (including specifically, but without limitation, Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) and any successor, equivalent or related body pursuant to the IR35 Legislation, section 44 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 and/or any of the provisions of Chapter 9 and/or section 688A of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 and/or any supporting or consequential secondary legislation relating thereto) arising out of or connected to the provision of the Intermediary Services, breach of this Agreement, the Data Protection Laws, or the tort or negligence of the Intermediary and / or the Temporary Contractor.

16. SEVERABILITY

If any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be determined by any competent authority to be unenforceable to any extent, such provision shall, to that extent, be severed from the remaining terms, which shall continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws.

17. NOTICES

All notices which are required to be given in accordance with this Agreement shall be in writing and may be delivered personally or by first class prepaid post to the registered office of the party upon whom the notice is to be served or any other address that the party has notified the other party in writing, by email or facsimile transmission. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been served: if by hand when delivered, if by first class post 48 hours following posting and if by email or facsimile transmission, when that email or facsimile is sent.

18. RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES

18.1. Save as set out in clause 18.2, none of the provisions of this Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of or enforceable by third parties and the operation of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 is excluded.

18.2. The Hirer shall be entitled to rely on and enforce the indemnities in clause 3.11 given by the Intermediary in favour of the Hirer, notwithstanding that the Hirer is not a party to this Agreement.

18.3. The Employment Business may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement but the intermediary and / or Temporary Contractor may not do so without the Employment Business' prior written consent

19. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Agreement is governed by the law of England & Wales and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England & Wales.

SCHEDULE: "QUALIFYING PERIOD" AND "TEMPORARY WORK AGENCY"

For the purpose of the definition of "Qualifying Period" in clause 1.1 of this Agreement, when calculating whether any weeks completed with the Hirer count as continuous towards the Qualifying Period, where:

- (a) the Temporary Contractor has started working during an assignment and there is a break, either between assignments or during an assignment, when the Temporary Contractor is not working;
- (b) the break is:
 - (i) for any reason and not more than six Calendar Weeks;
 - (ii) wholly due to the fact that the Temporary Contractor is incapable of working in consequence of sickness or injury and the break is 28 Calendar Weeks or less; paragraph (iii) does not apply; and, if required to do so by the Employment Business, the Temporary Contractor has provided such written medical evidence as may reasonably be required;
 - (iii) related to pregnancy, childbirth or maternity and is at a time in a protected period, being a period beginning at the start of the pregnancy and ending at the end of the 26 weeks beginning with childbirth (being the birth of a living child or the birth of a child whether living or dead after 24 weeks of pregnancy) or, if earlier, when the Temporary Contractor returns to work;
 - (iv) wholly for the purpose of taking time off or leave, whether statutory or contractual, to which the Temporary Contractor is otherwise entitled which is:
 - i. ordinary, compulsory or additional maternity leave;
 - ii. ordinary or additional adoption leave;
 - iii. ordinary or additional paternity leave;
 - iv. time off or other leave not listed in paragraphs (iv)i, ii, or iii above; or
 - v. for more than one of the reasons listed in paragraphs (iv)i, ii, iii to iv above;
 - (v) wholly due to the fact that the Temporary Contractor is required to attend at any place in pursuance to being summoned for service as a juror and the break is 28 Calendar Weeks or less;
 - (vi) wholly due to a temporary cessation in the Hirer's requirement for any worker to be present at the establishment and work in a particular role for a pre-determined period of time according to the established custom and practices of the Hirer;
 - (vii) wholly due to a strike, lock-out or other industrial action at the Hirer's establishment; or
 - (viii) wholly due to more than one of the reasons listed in paragraphs (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi) or (vii); and
- (c) the Temporary Contractor returns to work in the same role with the Hirer, any weeks during which the Temporary Contractor worked for the Hirer before the break shall be carried forward and treated as counting towards the Qualifying Period with any weeks during which the Temporary Contractor works for the Hirer after the break. In addition, when calculating the number of weeks during which the Temporary Contractor has worked, where the Temporary Contractor has started working in a role during an Assignment and is unable to continue working for a reason described in paragraph (b)(iii) or (b)(iv)i, ii, or iii., for the period that is covered by one or more such reasons, the Temporary Contractor shall be deemed to be working in that role with the Hirer for the original intended duration or likely duration of the relevant Assignment, whichever is the longer. For the avoidance of doubt, time spent by the Temporary Contractor working during an assignment before 1 October 2011 does not count for the purposes of the definition of "Qualifying Period".

"Temporary Work Agency" means as defined in Regulation 4 of the AWR

Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this definition a person is not a Temporary Work Agency if the person is engaged in the economic activity of paying for, or receiving or forwarding payments for, the services of individuals regardless of whether the individuals are supplied to work for hirers. For the purpose of this definition, a "hirer" means a person engaged in economic activity, public or private, whether or not operating for profit, to whom individuals are supplied, to work temporarily.
